Apostle Yolanda M. Stith is the Lead Pastor of the All Nations Worship Assembly Baltimore, President of PHB Ministries and the Founder of Junia's Table.

She has been called to articulate God's truths and to raise servant leaders in ministry and the marketplace. She's a woman of wisdom and through her ministry, God has transformed many lives. You will note with Apostle Stith, that worship, prayer and obedience are KEYS to advancement, of any kind.

She is a graduate of Lancaster Bible College, thriving business woman, song writer and a published author.

On March 23, 2013, Yolanda M. Stith was commissioned into the office of an Apostle, by her spiritual father and continues to serve the vision.

In addition to being a servant to God's people, she is a servant first, to her husband and 4 children.
